

ARTS ED NJ PROFESSIONAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

FALL 2022

Empowering Student Artists: Implementing the 2020 New Jersey Student Learning Standards in the Visual and Performing Arts

October 26, 2022
9:00am - 3:00pm

*A Join us in-person for this memorable session!
12 Centre Drive
Monroe Township, NJ 08831*

Sequential arts education, rooted in practices that are culturally responsive, fosters a sense of belonging, and supports students in developing identity, agency, and creativity. The format of this workshop will provide a full day of active learning. The session will include small-group, peer-to-peer learning to support robust implementation of the 2020 New Jersey Student Learning Standards in the Visual and Performing Arts. Participants will be invited to work collaboratively, building upon examples and impactful teaching and learning practices that center student empowerment. Join us as we explore resources and share practices that will help you to implement the 2020 NJSLS-VPA with fidelity to the mission and vision.

This workshop will be valuable for arts educators as well as administrators, and all experience levels are welcome. Once registered, you will receive materials to view/review prior to the session.

Presenters: This workshop will be presented by members of the NJSLS-VPA writing teams.

Fee: $150

Cultivating Conditions for Social Emotional Learning and Arts Education

November 16, 2022
3:00pm - 4:30pm VIA ZOOM

Student artists can develop a deep sense of identity, belonging, and agency when social emotional learning is intentionally embedded into arts education. This 90-minute workshop will offer arts educators and administrators the opportunity to self-assess readiness to embed social emotional learning into arts programs and teaching practices that are rooted in culturally responsive arts education. Join us to learn about resources and key principles that will help you to cultivate conditions for social emotional learning and culturally responsive arts education.

Presenter:
Latasha Casterlow-Lalla, Supervisor of Visual & Performing Arts, Passaic Public Schools

Fee: $75

