FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Empowering Artists: Designing Student-Centered Learning Driven by the 2020 New Jersey Student Learning Standards in the Visual and Performing Arts
A Self-paced, Twelve-module Certificate Course

Prepare to become an innovator in arts education! This twelve-module course is ideal for PK-12 arts educators and Supervisors, to support holistic implementation of the 2020 New Jersey Student Learning Standards in Visual and Performing Arts. This asynchronous, certificate course is organized into two parts to make the learning more digestible.

You will build capacity to develop process-driven arts education practices leveraging an array of resources and technologies to fulfill the mission and vision of 2020 NJSLS-VPA.

Optional Office Hours will be offered to support this learning community.

Who should take this course?

This two-part course is ideal for all PK-12 Arts Educators, Arts Supervisors, and anyone responsible for ensuring the arts standards are taught with fidelity and in a manner that advances student identity, agency, and belonging.

I'm already using the 2020 NJSLS-VPA, how will this course benefit me?

This course provides the opportunity to become part of a learning community that is committed to re-envisioning sequential arts education, capable of driving artistic literacy and fluency that will lead to lifelong learning in the arts. Additionally, this course offers tools to incorporate practices such as culturally relevant and sustaining learning and artistic SEL.

What topics are covered in this course?

For a full list of topics, see the sample pacing guide.

The twelve modules cover everything an educator needs to develop a broad and deep understanding of the 2020 NJSLS-VPA; holistic implementation of the learning standards through Culturally Responsive Arts Education (CRAE) and Social Emotional Learning (SEL); and the advocacy lens.

Why is this course organized into two parts (Part I and Part II)?

This asynchronous course is organized into two parts to make the learning more digestible. Part I lays a foundation and Part II builds upon the learning in the first half of the course.

How can I find out more about the topics in this asynchronous course?

You can view the informational webinar here.

How long will it take to complete the course?

This is a self-paced course, so the answer will vary. Completion time for both parts of this course is approximately 18 – 36 hours, depending on how much time is invested in portfolio development. There are twelve modules in the course, with an estimated 1.5 hours of study time per module. Participants may choose to invest additional time in portfolio development as they complete the twelve modules asynchronously.

How long will I have access to this course?

This course will become available on May 31, 2023.

Registered participants will have access to the course for twelve months from first login.
